

ACCUSED OF USING ADS. TO SWINDLE IDLE OUT OF FEES

William B. Allen Is Held on Charge of Refusing to Refund Money.

William B. Allen Jr., No. 1908 New York Avenue, Brooklyn, was held on $12,000 bail to await the action of the Grand Jury by Magistrate Nolan in the Centre Street Police Court today on a charge of swindling unemployed men by taking deposits from them under guarantee of remunerative jobs and refusing to return the deposits.
The principal complainant was George Abousseman of No. 435 Seventh Ave.

Abousseman answered an advertisement in The World and met Allen in an office at No. 30 Church Street.
He gave Allen $100 and Allen gave him a can containing half a pound of coffee and sent him out to sell coffee on a commission basis.

Unable to sell any coffee, Abousseman demanded the return of his money. He was told he had signed a contract which forfeited his deposit.
When he went to Allen's office to serve a summons, he said, Albert Jablou, Allen's clerk, grabbed the paper and tore it up, on which charge he also was held today for a hearing on Nov. 7.

"This thing," said the Magistrate, "is a swindle on its face. When I was an Assistant District Attorney in 1912, I prosecuted, with the aid and at the suggestion of The New York World, scores of heartless swindler who operated schemes similar to this. The World has been the consistent enemy of dishonest advertisers and I am sure they would not have accepted an advertisement from you had they known the kind of a man you are."

Allen said he was the President of a $750,000 corporation with a New Jersey banker and a Brooklyn resident on the Board of Directors. He called to give the name of the corporation and said he didn't know how much of the $750,000 capital had been paid in.

Sigmund Ehrman, a carpenter of No. 177 Monroe Street, and Martin Schlesinger, a machinist of No. 162 Montauk Avenue, Brooklyn, made affirmations that they had had similar experiences with Allen.

HE'LL GET NO CAT MEAT THROUGH MARTY MCCUE.

Misadventure Asks Clerk How About Estate Left for Stray Vetters.

Former State Senator Marty McCue, now Clerk of the Surrogate's Court, today received a letter from George Mc-Cauley of Fulton, Mo., saying: "Having read that Caroline Ewen left $50,000 for the benefit of stray cats to buy meat and catnip, I have a stray cat half-grown that I rescued from a dog that was about to kill it. I want to know if I am entitled to any allowance from the above estate for the upkeep of the cat."

Dr. Shapley New Director of Harvard Observatory.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 3.—The appointment of Dr. Harlow Shapley, formerly of the Mount Wilson Solar Observatory at Pasadena, Calif., as Director of the Harvard College Observatory, was announced today. Prof.
John I. Bailey, acting Director since the death of Prof. Edward C. Pickering in 1919, will go to Arequipa, Peru, to take charge of Harvard's South American astronomical station.

HYLAN USES PUPILS TO BEFOG PARENTS, CURRAN DECLARES

Charges School Children Are to Write Letters Denying Part Time.

Speaking before the Harding and Coolidge Women's Club at a luncheon at the Hotel Marie Antoinette today, Maj. Henry H. Curran, coalition candidate for Mayor, declared he had discovered the most detestable thing in the campaign, and that was having school children write letters to their parents that the schools were not on part time, nor were there double sessions in any of the schools.
He said:

"I have just discovered a new kind of Hylan-Hearst campaign and in my opinion, this is the most disgraceful of all the law methods employed by those two partners in their 1921 attempt to fool the people of New York City.

"They have compelled a teacher in the public schools to send out to the children the following lie for them to copy as a part of their schooling:

"Dear Parents:
"There are no part time or double sessions in our school. Every pupil has a full day's instruction throughout the city."

"These letters are written by the older children and given to the smaller children to sign. When the letters are signed by the smaller children, they are sent out as Hylan political campaign material.

Hylan and Hearst were not content with trying to line up the widowed mothers to coerce them into voting for Hylan out of fear of losing their pensions, but they have got around to the little children.

"They are not content with lying themselves—they are putting their lies in the mouths of innocent children."

Major Curran then took up the question of the employees of the city, and said:

"Just one word more about my re-tensions, while I am Mayor, with the 75,000 men and women who make up the great army of employees of the city. I have told you I would not reduce their salaries; neither will they be under any political coercion while I am Mayor. They will get just the same treatment from me that I have given in the last two years to the 2,500 men and women who do the work in my department as President of the Borough of Manhattan. I am only interested in their welfare."

TWO LARGE LINERS SAIL

Paris and Adriatic Carry Heavy Passenger Lists.

Carrying unusually heavy passenger lists for this season, the French liner Paris for Havre and the White Star liner Adriatic for Southampton got away yesterday.

On the Adriatic was the Right Hon.
Reginald McKenna, former Chancellor of the Exchequer of England, now Chairman of the London Joint City and Midland Bank. Also on board were Charles S. Wilson, newly appointed Minister to Bulgaria, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Tuck Frouch, Mr. and Mrs. Saint Laurence, Mrs. Louis F. Lorillard, Sir John Winn and Harvey Bowring.
On the Paris was Prof. E. Bellet, who a few months ago conducted for The World a series of highly successful experiments of transmission of photo-grams from St. Louis to New York by telegraph. His assistant, Georges Jou-neau, accompanied him. Capt. V. Ugo d'Annunzio, son of the Italian post-so-dier, sailed for a business trip to France and Italy.

GOLFER TELLIER HANGS HIMSELF AT BRAE BURN CLUB

Massachusetts Open Champion Commits Suicide at Shelter on Links.

NEWTON, Mass., Nov. 3.—The body of Louis Tellier, Massachusetts open golf champion, was found today hanging by a small rope in a shelter on the links of the Brae Burn Country Club.

The Medical Examiner and police said death was due to suicide.

Tellier came to America about ten years ago. Then he was the golf professional champion of France. He immediately took high rank with the

CAN'T AFFORD TO HELP PARENTS, SHE CLAIMS

Drives Costly Car and Is Said to Have $200 a Week Allowance.

Mrs. Amelia Karlin of No. 431 Central Park West, was to-day allowed by Supreme Court Justice Morschauser in White Plains to re-open the case in connection with an order to show cause why she should not furnish $10 a month for the support of her parents, both over eighty. The order was returned on Oct. 14, and Mrs.
Karlin failed to appear.

Mrs. Karlin denied the statement of Commissioner of Charities William Paul of Yonkers, that she had an income of $200 a week for household expenses, and said she couldn't afford to give $10 a month to aid her parents.

"If this woman can come to court in a Rolls-Royce car," said Justice Morschauser, "we shall get it out of her."
He set the date of the hearing for Nov. 14.

GEN. O'RYAN AIDS BANDIT WHO POSES AS 27TH VETERAN

Makes Begging Gunman Admit He Is Impostor, Then Gives Him Money.

Major Gen. John F. O'Ryan, Trans-missionary, who was Commanding the 27th Division, A. E. F., and is head of the National Guard of New York, on leave, left his home No.
112 East 74th Street last evening to walk down Madison Avenue to the Ritz Carlton, where he was a guest at The World's dinner to H. G. Wells.
Gen. O'Ryan is about 5 feet 8 inches tall, slight but sinewy.

A shorter but thickset, roughlooking youngish man stepped from a dark recess in Madison Avenue hands in outside coat pockets. The outline of a revolver was plain to the military expert.

"Hey! I want some help from you," Gen. O'Ryan stopped.

"I see no reason why you shouldn't get it if you deserve it," he said.

"What's the trouble?"

"Got no job, no money. Broke."

"That's tough," said the General.

"Walk along and we'll see what we can do for you. Were you on the other side?"

"Sure. With the 27th."

"Twenty-seventh? What 27th?"

"The 27th Artillery," the man answered, impatiently. By this time they were walking side by side and presently the man took his hands from his pockets.

"Now, my boy, come clean," said O'Ryan. "There was no 27th Artillery with the 27th Division. Were you really in France at all?"

"Well, no, I wasn't," the man replied, desperate.

"Then, that's settled. Here's something to tide you over till to-morrow.
Come and see me. I shan't get you into trouble," said the General, handing the man a bill and slipping his arm within the other's. He quickly discovered the other fellow had a pistol in his pocket, but he seemed to have forgotten it.

"Good night," said O'Ryan, and the man moved off.
